Special Guest: Michele Beschen of B.Organic

Michele Beschen is a high-spirited how-to hipster from the Midwest who has a passion for all things creative while being conscious of the environment! She is the host and creator of the series' B. Original on HGTV, B. Organic on Public Television and has built a growing multi-media business designed to empower people to express their creative side through the delivery of innovative projects and ideas. She inspires men, women and children to look at things differently, approach do-it-yourself projects fearlessly, and to take action on their ideas. She has the courage to create with anything and everything and she looks forward to sharing that with all of you! At Girls Go Global, Michele will be giving away prize packages, including a grand prize valued at more than $100!

Meet up with Michele Beschen before Girls Go Global at exclusive one-day workshop held at Michele's studio where she shoots her hit shows B. Organic and B. Original near Des Moines, IA. Michele is offering a special deal just for Girl Scouts and their guardian: a special two-for-the-price-of-one registration fee!

Branch Out with Michele Beschen
Saturday, March 6, 2010 from 9 AM - 5 PM
408 Grant Studios, Van Meter, Iowa

This is a do-it-yourself workshop that delivers fresh eyes, empowered hands and a magnified can-do spirit. You're guaranteed to go home with an amazing assortment of natural goods you create yourself, priceless hands-on experience with different tools and a newfound knowledge of techniques and materials ... oh, and lots of laughs!

How to Register:

Event and discounted hotel accommodation information is available at <http://www.thedoityourselflife.com>. Enter promo code scouts241 on the registration checkout page and set the quantity to 2. Or contact Chad at 515-996-2600 to register by phone. Limit 15 girl-adult pairs at two-for-one price.

Make plans now to attend Girls Go Global on April 24. We hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
