Girls Go Global: It's Easy To Be Green!

Update ~ March 8, 2010

Dear Jennifer,

Just announced! ~ The latest information regarding vendors and presenters for Girls Go Global: It's Easy To Be Green!

Don't miss special appearances from Anne Langguth, Miss Iowa, and Michelle Berndt, Mrs. Iowa United States 2009 and Mrs. Iowa US Beauties 2010. Both of these ladies encourage girls to succeed, one dream at a time. You will learn about both of their platforms, talents and interests and how they TAKE ACTION in their communities.

Anne Langguth

Michelle Berndt

University of Iowa

will be representing many booths and older girl break-out sessions. Sessions include "How to be Green," "Edible Aquifers," and Gross Anatomy; older girls will learn what it takes to be ready for college!

Watch a Mini-Solar Sprint Car Derby with the Center for Energy and Environmental Education. Learn how to build a mini-solar sprint car and make your own using alternative energy sources. Then you and your partner will put your mini-solar sprint car to the test and race against others!

AND THAT'S NOT ALL ...

Don't forget our special guests: Michele Beschen from the Iowa Public Television show, b. organic, and Ted Coopwood from Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Children's Health and Protection!

Make plans now to attend Girls Go Global on April 24. We hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
